

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Before purchasing your course, please acknowledge our Terms & Conditions. By continuing to purchase you will be bound by our options outlined as follow:

- Cancellations up to or before commencement of classes will only be refunded 50% of any style offered by our school.
- NO cancellation changes and/or refunds will be accepted after commencement of any course.
- NO refunds are available on any merchandise sold by Salsita dance School (SDS).
- Tickets are sold subject to the regulation of the SDS.
- SDS reserves the right to make alterations to any advertised arrangements or feature artists.
- The classes may be cancelled or postponed by the SDS at any given time or reason.
- SDS will not be liable for any cancellation/postponements neither damages as a result there of.
- SDS will not be liable for any loss or damage to property of patrons whilst attend the course.
- In the event of full cancellation of SDS patrons will be required to contact the office for a full refund. If rescheduled patrons not attending must contact the office within 5 working days from the day of the reschedule announcement to claim a refund, failing to do so, patrons will forfeit the rights to claim. SDS reserves the right to set refund limitations.
- If the tickets are re-sold or transferred for profit or commercial gains by any one other than SDS will become void and the holder may be refused to attend.
- Multiple class tickets must be shown at all entitled classes. Failure to do so may decline entry to person/s claiming it. Each ticket admits one person only to a respective class.
- Photography, filming during class is absolutely prohibited unless prior arrangement.